yawć (hello) from the Chief

On behalf of the x̱á'isla Nation, I extend a heartfelt welcome to our lands. For thousands of years, our people have thrived in this area. Today, about 700 of our 2,000+ members live in our main community, x̱á'isla (formerly Kitamaat Village), with many more across B.C. and beyond.

It is with great pride and gratitude that I invite you to explore the lands, waters, and stories that define our territory. As the elected Chief Councillor, I am honoured to represent a people whose roots run deep in this territory, whose traditions, language, and values continue to guide us forward.

As you explore the area, I invite you to experience the beauty of our territory. A simple itinerary would be to visit our x̱á'isla community with a stop at our Health Centre building, where a stunning display of artwork greets you at the entrance. This vibrant installation features contributions from five talented x̱á'isla artists - Paul Windsor, Brad Starr, the late Barry Wilson, and Nathan Wilson - framing a majestic totem pole carved by the late Sammy Robinson, which stands proudly at the centre. Next, treat yourself to a local favourite at Gizuá Market, our community store renowned for its delicious frozen yogurt. From there, take a leisurely walk down Haisla Avenue to our marina where a scenic boardwalk invites you to soak in the breathtaking views of the Douglas Channel. It's the perfect place to enjoy the ocean breeze and snap that picture-perfect moment for your social media feed.

We are proud to share x̱á'isla Nation is home to acclaimed author Eden Robinson, whose novel Monkey Beach, now a feature film, continues to share powerful Indigenous stories worldwide. We also celebrate the Snotty Nose Rez Kids, a Juno Award-winning hip-hop duo from our Nation whose music inspires Indigenous youth across the globe.

Whether you are here to experience our breathtaking landscapes, learn about our cultural heritage, or connect with the warmth of both communities, we are grateful you have chosen to visit. We hope your visit leaves you with lasting memories and a deeper appreciation for the beauty and resilience of our Nation. May your time here be filled with discovery, connection, and peace.

'iks ḡʷáilas / goodbye/take care,

Maureen Nyce
Elected Chief Councillor
x̱á'isla Nation

Welcome from the Mayor

Welcome to B.C.'s Marvel of Nature and Industry.

The District of Kitimat, located on the unceded territory of the Haisla Nation, is a community that captures the charms of a small town with the opportunity to enjoy world-class outdoor recreation and high-end local amenities.

As you read through this guide, you'll quickly be introduced to what makes this community so great and unique.

Our municipal recreational facilities provide indoor opportunities from swimming at our Sam Lindsay Aquatic Centre, to skating at Tamitik Arena, to fitness opportunities at the Riverlodge Recreation Centre.

An abundance of outdoor trails, including recently developed mountain bike trails to connect you with our forests.

Access to the Douglas Channel, a saltwater fjord with even more to explore by boat.

While enjoying the local amenities be sure to spend time at our newest nature park, Minette Bay West Park. Located directly next to the water, there is a leisurely trail, fire pits, a covered seating area overlooking the ocean and a recently installed floating dock where you can launch your kayak or canoe.

A new, beautifully carved pole stands next to the recently constructed Haisla Bridge. The pole, in a small park space, stands over a view of the Kitimat River with walking connections to our nearby municipal campground.

Speaking of camping, if you're a camper you have local options to stay during the summer either at Radley Park, the only campsite along the Kitimat River, or at nearby Hirsch Creek Park, a more rustic and nature-based camping experience.

What really stands us apart, though, is how unlike many other towns we are. We are a purposefully built community designed with plenty of green space, many neighbourhood playgrounds, and an elaborate walkway system to connect it all together.

I also encourage you to spend time learning about the community such as with a visit to the local Kitimat Museum & Archives. There is a lot you can learn there about our town's history, the Haisla Nation, and wildlife. It is also home to the local art gallery.

Visiting and living in Kitimat is an adventure and we hope that you enjoy your time and your journey through our community.

Mayor Phil Germuth

While Kitamaat is the Tsimshian word for “People of the Snow”, the Haisla name for Kitamaat Village is “ċimáuċa”, meaning “Snag Beach”.

Haisla Nation

The x̄á’isla Nation is in a period of deep and rewarding self-discovery, embracing its cultural and language roots while uncovering evidence of its long and storied past in this valley.

The x̄á’isla People have lived in this territory for thousands of years. That rich history came to life in the summer of 2020 when, during environmental restoration work in Minette Bay, x̄á’isla and their industrial partners uncovered ancient x̄á’isla fishing weirs.

Radiocarbon dating revealed that these weirs were built and used as early as 1,800 years ago—a remarkable discovery that offers a glimpse into x̄á’isla ingenuity and connection to the land and waters.

Since then, much has changed in the valley, impacting the x̄á’isla in many ways. In 1918, the influenza pandemic drastically reduced the population, and like many Indigenous Nations across Canada, the x̄á’isla continue to feel the lasting impacts of the Indian Residential School system and its ongoing legacy.

Today’s x̄á’isla Nation is an amalgamation of the x̄enáksiala (Kemano and Kitlope) and the x̄á’isla (Kitamaat) Peoples.

The x̄á’isla social system is based on matrilineal clans, each with their own hiḿáas (chiefs) and músmeziɬ (matriarchs). The present-day clans are Beaver, Raven, Eagle, and Killer Whale/Black Fish/Salmon. Historically, there were also the Crow, Frog, and Wolf clans, which later merged with others due to declining numbers.

In the early 21st century, conversations with project proponents ushered in a new era of development and inclusion, ensuring the x̄á’isla Nation has both a Share and Say in what is built—and how it is built—within their territory.

This new wave of opportunity has brought increased employment for x̄á’isla members and strengthened the Nation’s vision of economic independence, most notably through the x̄á’isla-led Cedar LNG project.

The summer of 2025 marked another historic moment as the first LNG tanker arrived in the Kitimat Valley to transport natural gas—symbolizing both the Nation’s evolving role in regional development and its continued leadership in shaping the future of its lands and resources.

That same year, in the fall of 2025, the community witnessed an extraordinary act of reMatriation when Elysia Poon and her team from the School for Advanced Research returned home a ceremonial mask carved by Joe Bolton. The event was a powerful moment of reconnection and healing, bringing a treasured piece of x̄á’isla artistry and spirit back to its rightful place.

At the same time, the x̄á’isla Culture & Language Department continues vital work in preserving and revitalizing x̄á’isla history, language, and núyem—the collection of Haisla stories, teachings, and laws that guide community life.

About Us

Kitimat is on the traditional and unceded territory of the Haisla Nation. The community was created to serve the industry in the 1950s and attracted workers from around the world. Kitimat has twice been the site of Canada's largest-ever private investment.

History

Kitimat was considered the "place to be" in North America in the 1950s, both for the new town plan, which was considered revolutionary and for its pioneer engineering feats.

During the post-war industrial boom, the Kitimat Project was the largest construction project of the time. A model of modern Canadian ingenuity, as the country's wild landscape, was surmounted with Kitimat's construction – from scratch. Records were set, there was innovation at every turn, and the result was the largest smelter in the world and a premier community to go with it.

The provincial and federal governments, along with the Aluminum Company of Canada, promoted Kitimat around the world. The community was designed for the worker and their families. The fulfillment of the residents' needs as the focus of a town plan was revolutionary.

The plant officially opened on August 3, 1954, with His Royal Highness Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, tapping the first ingot.

Kitimat Project

Kitimat was built to support the construction and operation of the new industry-leading Alcan aluminum smelter in the 1950s.

The massive Kitimat Project was completed in just five years and included a dam, tunnel, powerhouse, transmission line, smelter, and Kitimat – British Columbia's first planned community.

The community was designed by renowned city planner Clarence Stein to facilitate an environment that would attract and retain workers.

Multiculturalism in Kitimat

Kitimat enjoyed a strong multicultural community spirit from early on, which continues to this day. There was a popular saying in the old days: "If you want to study a foreign language, go stand at the bus stop."

While provincial and federal governments, along with Alcan (formerly the Aluminum Company of Canada), promoted Kitimat around the world – Alcan also hired across the prairies and in major centres using radio, television and industry press, attracting both English and French-speaking Canadians. Community groups formed as new residents hailed from Italy, Portugal, Greece, India, China, the Philippines, Finland and elsewhere.

Be sure to check out Heritage Park! Home to a variety of flags from all over the world representing many of the different multicultural groups that reside in Kitimat.

It's a perfect area for an afternoon picnic or rest stop.

Centennial Park

Centennial Park was built in 1971 to commemorate the 100th anniversary of British Columbia's entry into Confederation. The Park boasts beautiful flower gardens, picnic tables, benches, a cenotaph war memorial, water fountain and totem pole. The totem pole depicts the story of Hunclee Qualaas or Waamis and the founding of Kitimat. The top figure is Waamis and below him are the legendary monsters that inhabited the Kitimat Valley. The park is a great place to enjoy a picnic or a leisurely stroll around the beautiful gardens. Centennial Park is located in City Centre across from Upper City Centre Mall.

Whale Watching

The Douglas Channel is one of the widest and deepest waterways on the west coast and a perfect place for whales to thrive thanks to rich food sources, quiet waters and deep fjords.

Seeing multiple pods of killer whales and/or humpbacks (depending on the season!) when out fishing or on a boat tour is standard in Kitimat. There are not many places in the world where you can say the same!

Killer Whales - The iconic orcas of the Eastern Pacific arrive in Kitimat in June, just in time to feed off salmon running into the Kitimat River.

Humpback Whales - Humpback whales begin their migration in early spring and arrive in August. Their preferred source of food in Kitimat is herring, in addition to krill and other small fish such as mackerel.

The wildlife that inhabit the Kitimat area are spectacular and the Douglas Channel is home to marine mammals both large and small. While you're out whale watching in Kitimat – see if you can also spot harbour porpoises, pacific white-sided dolphins in the water, the Kermode bear or grizzlies on the land from the boat, or majestic bald eagles in the sky!

Hot Springs

Kitimat's wild marine hot springs are natural and sulphur-free. What else could be better than mother nature's hot tub surrounded by spectacular views? These hot springs are only accessible by boat.

Hospital Beach

This ocean-side beach (the original site of Kitimat's first hospital) is located just past Rio Tinto's BC Works smelter. It is a popular gathering spot for visitors and locals during the summer months. At low tide, you can explore and may find seashells and other small sea creatures.

On the very bottom are the key stone species that have sustained the Haisla, the salmon and oolichan.

HIKING & WALKING

Let's go!

Our beautiful community is very walkable and enjoys 53 km of interconnected pathways! The Kitimat region also has an abundance of hiking opportunities with hundreds of trails to explore and many beautiful parks.

Trails

Hike along the shores of the Douglas Channel, the banks of the Kitimat River or climb one of our beautiful mountains. The trail to North Cove is a local favourite as it leads to a secluded cove on the Douglas Channel that provides the perfect opportunity to view sea life.

Trails in Kitimat through its forests and mountains range from easy to difficult, and there is plenty of opportunity to observe wildlife in their natural environment.

For more information on our trails, we recommend alltrails.com, which provides detailed information, maps, and even trail conditions frequently updated by users. The free app is available for IOS and Android.

Let's play!

Kitimat is home to a picturesque 18-hole golf course meandering through the forest, and a clubhouse where you can finish off the day with a frosty pint on the outdoor patio.

The Hirsch Creek Golf & Winter Club is home to an extremely challenging, superbly designed 18 hole, par 72, championship golf course.

The golf course is comprised of and recognized for its competitive and diverse design and presents a memorable round for both beginner and experienced golfers. The beautiful front 9, designed by Les Furber, winds its way through the wilderness to create outstanding views from tee boxes and fairways. The back 9 is an established layout that allowed nature to form a more traditional golf experience.

The facility offers professional knowledge and expertise, practice greens, driving range and rentals (golf equipment, motorized and pull carts).

The breath-taking views from the restaurant and lounge are amongst some of the most scenic views in Northern BC. The club has a 130 seat licensed clubhouse and deck, along with a private meeting / dining room that can accommodate up to 35 people. The raised sundeck at the front of the clubhouse is the perfect place to relax over a drink or a meal and soak in the sunshine after a round of golf.

When the thermometer dips, try your hand on the four sheet curling rink, which has long been a regional favorite where players of all ages and skill levels enjoy the varied programs and schedules. "Public Drop In" sessions give new curlers the chance to try out the sport and develop skills. These sessions are also an opportunity for league players to perfect their skills, families to try curling together and young people to "try something new."

Saltwater Fishing

Watch for Wildlife! As you experience the salt spray and ocean wind, be on the lookout for sea lions, eagles, orcas, humpback whales and dolphins at play. You may even spot the elusive Kermode bear exploring the shores of the Douglas Channel or bald eagles as they pick salmon, or dolphins swimming alongside your boat.
Some of the largest halibut on the BC coast are found in the protected waters of the Inside Passage. Dungeness crab, snapper, and prawns can be found as well!

Trails are dependent on the amount of snow with routes for everyone: from novice to the more experienced.

Snowshoes are available for rent through the District of Kitimat's Leisure Services at the Riverlodge Recreation Centre. Call 250-632-8970 for more information.

At Onion Lake from Snow Valley Nordic Ski Club Snowshoe passes are available in the ticket booth at the front gate entrance. Snowshoe rentals are available on weekends when the rental shed is open: Saturdays 10-4, Sundays 11-4.

Backcountry Skiing

Kitimat locals love the convenience of having amazing backcountry ski access right at their doorsteps.

If you're a visitor, you'll enjoy easy access to the stunning, endless backcountry of the Kitimat Ranges.

Be sure to plan ahead, and consider getting or upgrading your avalanche skills training.

Cross-Country Skiing

About halfway between Kitimat and Terrace are 35km of groomed trails perfect for both cross-country and skate skiing. These are called the Onion Lake Ski Trails, which are maintained by the Snow Valley Nordic Ski Club.

The ski trails were built to suit a variety of skill levels while providing easy access to the small lakes and spectacular views of the valley. The vistas of the Kitimat Range Coast Mountains that surround the trails make skiing an awe-inspiring experience.

- Day passes available for purchase from the ticket booth at the trailhead.
- Lessons are available for beginners.
- Ski and gear rentals available.
- 5km of lit trails for night skiing.
- 6km "Doggy Trail" dedicated to dog owners and their best friends.
- A warming hut, parking and toilets are available next to the stadium free of charge for season pass holders and day users.

Trails are dependent on the amount of snow with routes for everyone: from novice to the more experienced.
